LAWYERS OF KENTUCKY BAR

Will- Assemble at Louisville
In Large Numbers
To-morrow.

MEETS EVERY 4 YEARS.

State Bar Association Begins
Then for Two Days'
Session.

Louisville, July 8.—The eighth annual meeting of the Kentucky State Bar Association will be held in Louisville for two days, beginning today and it is expected that fully 200 members of the association from various sections of the State will attend, in addition to the Louisville members. This will be the third session that has been held in Louisville since the organization, the constitution providing that the association shall meet in this city every fourth year.

The officers of the association residing in Louisville have made preparations to entertain the visiting delegates, and the programme for the two days includes some of the best known speakers among the legal fraternity in Kentucky. The sessions will be held in the joint session room at the Jefferson county courthouse, and the social features at the Seelbach.

Chief officers of the association are: T. Kennedy Helm, Louisville, president, and Edward J. McDermott, Louisville, vice president of this district.

Messrs. A. H. Anderson, R. M. Fairleigh and J. W. Adams are at Red Boiling Springs.

BRYAN AND GRAY PROBABLE TICKET

The Platform Will Be Unequivocal, Voicing Clearly the Party's Position On Current Issues.

DELAWARE CANDIDATE FAVORITE FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

Denver, July 8.—The adoption of the reports of the committees on credentials, organization and resolutions was the feature of to-day's convention. Henry D. Clayton, of Alabama, was made permanent chairman and the other temporary officers were made permanent. Ballotting will begin to-morrow. Bryan will be named on the first ballot. Gray will be named for Vice President unless he refuses to take it. The platform will be clear cut and unequivocal.

Auditorium, Denver, Colo., July 8.—The Democracy of the east and west Tuesday joined hands within the shadow of the snow-clad Rockies to name candidates for president and vice president, and to formulate a set of policies upon which to appeal to the voters of the nation.

For the first time in its history the party had recognized the claims the far west in the selection of a meeting place. Denver, justly proud of the honor conferred upon her, had provided a brand new auditorium, the best equipped of its kind in America. The building cost the taxpayers of the city $600,000. In addition, they subscribed to a fund of $100,000 for the entertainment of the delegates and other visitors.

Taggart Raps For Order.

Shortly after noon, when the applause following the "cowboy band" rendition of the "Star-Spangled Banner" had died away, Chairman Tom Taggart, of Indiana, head of the Democratic national committee, rapped for order on the hard wood speaker's stand, and the business of the convention was begun. Secretary Urey Woodson, of the national committee, was introduced and read the call under which the assemblage had been convened.

Theodore A. Bell, of California, was introduced and sounded the keynote in a fine speech.

Urey Woodson was made temporary secretary.

At the conclusion of Bell's speech, a motion was put and carried directing the various state delegations to announce the names of their representatives on the following convention committees: Credentials, permanent organization, rules and order of business, and platform and resolutions.

Following the reading of the committees' names, and the transaction of some minor business, the first day's session was brought to a close in an imperative manner. On motion of the delegation from New Jersey, Home of the late Grover Cleveland, the convention, by a rising vote, adjourn until Wednesday out of respect to the memory of the ex-president.

Tom Johnson was defeated in the Ohio delegation yesterday for national committeeman by a vote of 26 to 8, Harvey C. Garber receiving the majority vote. The delegation refused to accept telegraphic proxies held by Johnson of 13 delegates still enroute.

Chunks of Harmony.

The Kentucky delegation to the Democratic National Convention held a harmonious meeting and organized by electing Ollie M. James chairman. Urey Woodson was unanimously Chosen National Committeeman. J. C. W. Beckham was put on the committee on resolutions; J. B. McCreary on organization; J. C. C. Mayo on credentials; W. B. Halderman on the committee to notify the presidential nominee, and J. T. Griffith on the committee to notify the vice presidential nominee.

GIFTED MUSICIAN

Is One of Landlord Noe's Attractive Daughters.

Mr. A. D. Noe, the new landlord at Hotel Latham, will continue the schedule of prices made by Mr. Brewer, and will bring his well-known ability as a hotel man to the task of making the big hotel popular with the people and especially the traveling public.

Mr. and Mrs. Noe have three grown daughters and two sons. The parents are Cumberland Presbyterians and the children belong to the Baptist and Methodist churches. One of the daughters, Miss Emma Noe, is a vocalist of rare talent and much culture. She has recently returned from a course in one of the large conservatories and will shortly be heard at the Methodist church.

Mr. Noe is not only a successful business man, but his family will be a valuable addition to society circles. All Hopkinsville welcome.

FISCAL COURT HOLDS SESSION

Routine Business Consumes
the Most of the Time of Court.

SEVERAL COMMITTEES.

Turnpike Committee Reports
Contract Let For Two Miles of Pike.

Fiscal court met in the city Tuesday.

The reports of J. G. Hord, poor commissioner; J. K. Twyman, county engineer, and W. J. Murphy, road supervisor, were received and filed.

The committee appointed to award the contract for the construction of turnpike on the Nashville road reported that Virgil B. Nuckols had been awarded two miles at $1,812.50 per mile.

The sum of $100 was appropriated to the poor commissioner for the benefit of paupers outside of the county poor house.

An appropriation of $112 was made to County Judge Prowse for the purpose of paying for treatment at the Pasteur Institute, Chicago, of Edgar Boyd, the little colored boy who was bitten by a rabid dog, just east of the city a week ago.

O. H. Anderson and Frank Rives were appointed a committee to investigate all the sheriff's settlements and books for the years preceding July 31, 1908.

Frank Rives was appointed to settle with David Smith for all money and matters in his hands in which the county is interested.

Claims aggregating about $225 were allowed.

Mr. John Coombs, of Louisville, arrived in the city Monday night, to accompany his sister, Miss Louise, home. The latter had been a guest of Miss Burnette Humphries for two weeks.

CONVENTION ECHOES, Brighter Side of the Republican National Assemblage.

LACK OF HIRSUTE ADORNMENT

Notable Absence of Whiskers Among Delegates Who Went to Chicago. Kentuckians Took Up With Wisconsin Because It's "Well"—Blaine Club's Elephant Took the Cake.

"The national republican convention of 1908," said Perry Heath, formerly assistant postmaster general, "will be known undoubtedly as the 'whiskers' convention."

Mr. Heath was right. Looking over the convention while assembled in the Chicago Coliseum, one was surprised to find so few men with hirsute adornment. In the whole national committee there were only five, and they affected, with one exception, not the full beard, but a sort of goatee growth that they smoothed with a lingering tenderness. In the convention itself there were not more than thirty of the delegates who had brought their whiskers with them.

"That man back there," remarked Thomas F. Shipp, who is connected with the forestry service in Washington and who hails from Indiana, "reminds me of the story of the man on the train who announced his ability to tell by the appearance alone the state whence every male passenger came. He walked up to a man who was well dressed and said to him, 'You are from New York?' 'Right,' was the reply. A tall, lanky passenger was in the next seat. 'You are from Vermont?' 'Well, I swan' was the astonished answer. The seer proceeded from passenger to passenger, correctly designating the state of his residence, and finally came to a fellow who was humped up on a seat, with ginger whiskers, a slouch hat and wearing ramble boots covered with mud. 'Let me see,' he said; 'you are hard to guess, but I think you come from Indiana.' 'Wrong there, partner!' was the response. 'Probably I fooled you because I have just passed through a heavy spell of yellow jaundice.'"

Wisconsin's Headquarters.
A refreshment emporium just opposite the Coliseum had a strip of canvas above its threshold declaring that it was Wisconsin's headquarters. "Born to Wisconsin?" asked a delegate from the northern state of the white apron proprietor, who busily motored foaming glasses across the bar.

"None," replied the thrifty attendant. "I was born in Kentucky."

"Then why this declaration of allegiance to Wisconsin?"
"Well, what could a fellow do when Kentucky rumped into the white ribbon brigade?" came the explanatory query. "I once ketched a fish up in one of them Wisconsin lakes, and I know every fisherman likes good bait. Me for the wet crowd."

A Miscalculation.
"Boost" seemed to be the motto among Chicago calmen during the convention. Besides driving the traveling stranger several times around the same block, with the full design of making him believe that he had ridden for miles, they had not the slightest timidity in saying "Three dollars" in the most matter of fact way.

Colonel Peter Hepburn got in a cab the other day and drove five blocks. When he descended to the fare, "Two dollars," was the answer. "What for?" asked "Uncle Pete."

"A dollar for the distance and a dollar for the time," answered the cabby. "My time isn't worth a penny around here," answered the Iowa statesman, and he gave cabby four quarters.

Just a Mistake.
A page had a telegram for Jonah Kalanianoale, the delegate from Hawaii, and he went about the lobby giving vent to this euphonious name for some minutes. The first time it was called the buzz of conversation perceptibly diminished and in a few moments ceased altogether, while the page still repeated the chant. One of the delegates from the west was doing in his lounge corner, but suddenly awoke with a start and said: "What's that boy saying? I thought it was some of those Chicago students giving their college yell."

Parade Led by Baby Elephant.
A baby elephant that the famous G. Blaine Marching club of Cleveland took to Chicago to head its procession broke into the rear of a bakery while waiting in an alley to take part in the parade and was making prodigious strides toward cleaning out the pie department before his keepers could drive him out of the shop. The baker has been trying to collect for the pie and other edibles appropriated by the elephant.

A Woman Delegate.
For the first time in the history of national conventions a woman had a place among the regular delegates to the Republican national convention. She is Mrs. Lucy A. Clark of Utah and attracted more attention than any other woman delegate. There were several women among the alternates.

An Old Time Usher.
One of the ushers in the convention was Peter M. Balken, who was an slave in the Wisconsin outfit of 1860, at which Abraham Lincoln was present.

BLUE GRASS EDITOR

Falls in Love With the Pennyville District.

At the famous Cerulean Springs we found an ideal summer resort, says Green R. Keller in the Carlisle Mercury. Commodious hotel building set on a hill where the delightful breezes play with the foliage of beautiful shade trees and fan away the heat and worry from the assembled multitudes who have discovered one of the most delightful spots on the earth. The water is noted for its health giving properties and we can testify as to its beneficial results on a disordered digestive apparatus. The hotel is presided over by an ideal Summer Resort Landlord—Capt. R. S. Pool—an old Confederate soldier, a man of anxiety, a judge of human nature and a genuine Kentucky gentleman. He has as a partner a splendid woman who makes a success of the culinary department by attending to it closely and never interfering with the Captain and his department. We only wish we were near enough to visit them often.

While spending the week in that section we were invited to visit Hopkinsville and accept the hospitality of that flourishing inland city. Our readers know little of "Hoptown." Well, we tell you she is the real thing. A sure enough live business place with enough magnificent homes real vein. It is there that the great Mogul Wagon Works are situated. There are other big things about Hopkinsville, but the Mogul is the biggest and we don't see how it could be the "Mogul" and be otherwise. This concern turns out 12,000 completed wagons every year.

Hopkinsville has the finest hotel of any inland city in the State—the Latham. She has the safest banks and many other good things—not to mention Mayor Meacham, Tom Underwood and Will Wilgus, old newspaper men and up-to-date orators and entertainers. The Press of Kentucky never had a more strenuously delightful time for twelve hours than Hopkinsville gave it. We were entertained handsomely and frequently.

Now that we have given so much space to the telling about what was done for us we have little space to tell of the country. This section differs greatly from Central Kentucky. The country is generally level. The crops are about the same as ours—corn, wheat and tobacco.

PERFECT CONFIDENCE.

Hopkinsville People Have a Good Reason For Complete Reliance.

Do you know—
To find quick relief from backache;
To correct distressing urinary ills;
To surely cure sick kidneys;
Just one way—your neighbors know—

Have used Doan's Kidney Pills. Mrs. W. C. Davis, 829 West Seventh Street, Hopkinsville, Ky., says: "Mr. Davis has never had any occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills or any other kidney medicine since he recommended them in the summer of 1903. For years prior to that time he had been an almost constant sufferer from kidney trouble. He had intense pains in his back which extended to his shoulders and annoyed him all day. They prevented him from sleeping during the night. The relief he obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, which he got at L. A. Johnson & Co.'s drug store was surprising. They acted differently from any remedy he ever tried and he has never had a recurrence of the trouble since using this valuable remedy four years ago. It speaks in pretty strong terms for Doan's Kidney Pills that cured him."

Strong Objections to Construction of Skyscraper.

New York, July 4.—The plans for a new 900 foot skyscraper at Broadway and Nassau street, for the Equitable Life Assurance Society, have been the topic of discussion among members of the Committee on Congestion of population in New York.

Two points have been raised regarding it. One is that the financial district, covered with sky scrapers as tall or even approximately the height of the Singer and Metropolitan Life towers, and the proposed Equitable structure, the down-town streets would be entirely inadequate for the passage of the thousands of people doing business there.

As one of those interviewed put it, "To accommodate such a crowd, the people would have to walk in three layers, one above the other, while the roadways would not hold the delivery wagons, automobiles and carriages of people going to the structures."

CENTENNIAL OF WALTZ

Popular Dance Introduced Just 100 Years Ago

A hundred years ago the armies of Napoleon found the peasants of Thuringia dancing a new dance. The new dance was so gay and audacious, so new in both step and tempo, so enticing and heart-melting that the armies of Napoleon almost forgot fighting while they learned it.

It was danced by couples. The man took his partner by the waist, while she clung to his shoulder. The two other arms were held outstretched, hand clasping hand, and round and round the couples whirled, and round and round, to music with a strange new lilt now languorous, now agitated, at once soothing and exciting, gay and grave, sentimental and diabolical. "That is dancing!" said the soldiers of Napoleon, and they took it with them, taught the conquered nations as full compensation, and in 1808 they brought the waltz to Paris.

Thus the world has waited 100 years. This year is the centennial of waltzing, and in Paris they are to have a grandiose celebration of it at the Opera.

A healthy man is a king in his own right; an unhealthy man is an unhappy slave. Burdock Blood Bitters builds up your health—keeps you well.

The Weather.

FOR KENTUCKY—Generally fair
and warmer Thursday.

Madam Anna Gould was married
Tuesday in London to Prince De Sagan, by a registrar and later a religious ceremony was performed
in a Lutheran church.

Paducah is in gala attire for the big meeting of the Kentucky, Tennessee and Mississippi Traveling Men's Association, which takes place Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Between 2,000 and 3,000 visit-ers are expected.

The Nebraska Republicans are already scared out of their boots. A huge Taft banner has been strung across the street in Lincoln to stop
the State pride that is surging
strong for Bryan. Many Republicans are protesting against this as an act of discourtesy to Bryan at this time.

Urey Woodson has been for the fourth time re-elected national committeeman for Kentucky, and when Bryan is elected something good will be in store for him. He will serve again as secretary of the national committee and will also be both temporary and permanent secretary of the Denver convention.
Urey Woodson has never for a moment doubted that Bryan would succeed or later be President and 1908
is the good year in which his wishes
will be fulfilled.

ABANDONMENT

Is Alleged in a Suit for Divorce from Wife.

J. T. Lane has filed suit here for divorce from his wife, Lula Lane.
They were married in Wilson county, Tenn., July 7, 1897. The defendant is now a resident of Tennessee. Plaintiff alleges abandonment. The case will be tried at the fall term of court.

Louisville Centenarian.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hubbard Mourning,
of Louisville celebrated July 7,
at the home of her son, the hundredth anniversary of her birth. She is in possession of all her faculties
and takes an active interest in all that goes on. Of nine children,
three sons, one over 80 years of age,

Logan and Miss Effie Willis were quietly married here late this afternoon at the residence of the bride's father, George Willis. The wedding was a complete surprise to everyone.
It was generally understood they were to be married in the fall, but the young people decided today to postpone the happy occasion no longer.

$100 REWARD $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease
that science has been able to control in its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical science. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surface of the system,
destroying the foundation of the disease,
and giving the patient strength by building up
the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The preparation contains no toxic or injurious element, that they offer One Hundred

INFLAMMATORY TALKS

Causes Another Outbreak In Calloway County.

Paducah, Ky., July 7.—With the withdrawal of the soldiers from west
of the Tennessee river in Kentucky,
night riders have been stirred by orators to demonstrations for the purposes of intimidating witnesses for the Commonwealth, and more than 200 shots were fired around the homes of Frank Mardis and Willie Dyer, in the eastern part of Calloway county, Sunday night.

These men turned up the secrets
of the night riders and identified members of the band. A campaign of speaking is in progress and some of the speakers have made no attempt to conceal their sympathy with lawlessness. It is probable that more soldiers will be sent into the disturbed districts and patrols along the Tennessee river will be resumed. The night riders' trials will be called at the August term of the Circuit Court.

STREET RAILWAY

Goes Into The Hands Of A Receiver.

Clarksville, Tenn., July 8.—The Clarksville Street Railway and Light Company went into the hands of a receiver on petition in the Federal Court at Nashville from the United States Trust Company, one of the largest creditors. The company controls the lighting and street railway
franchises of the city and it is said
the action was caused by a disagreement among the stockholders over the sale of the system to a Memphis
syndicate, which has had a representative in Clarksville during the last ten days looking over the property.

AT CAMPBELL'S CAVE

Legal Fraternity Will Dis-
port Itself To-day.

The Hopkinsville Bar Association
is to-day enjoying a picnic at Campbell's Cave and for once are forgetting the contentions and rivalries of the forum. Besides a fine dinner, there is expected to be an equally
fine flow of oratory, if the lawyers
can be induced to overcome their modesty and make appropriate remarks.

House and Lot for Sale.

The Crabb house on South Campbell street—seven room cottage in good repair. Large lot with garden, fruit trees and stable. Apply to Geo. C. Long or G. W. Crabb.

ONLY SIX PASSED

In Class of Twenty-Six Applicants.

The papers of the colored applicants for teachers' certificates, who were examined the last week in June,
have been graded and certificates to those who were successful were issued this week. Of the twenty-six applicants only six passed. Four got third-class and two second-class.
Two applicants dropped out before the end of the first day's examination and eighteen failed. None got a first-class certificate. It is said that the examination was very hard,
especially in arithmetic.

LAND SALES.

Stevenson Homestead, Buck-
ner Place and Pembroke Property.

Uphaw Buckner, as executor of Sarah A. Buckner, sold the farm of 270 acres, near Longview, Monday.
The price was $33-25 an acre. Mr.
Frank Rives was the purchaser.

Frank Rives, attorney for J. E.
and M. A. Stevenson, sold the Stevenson homestead, near Bennettstown, to E. C. Stevenson. There are 149 acres in the tract and the price
was $48 an acre.

In the matter of Eldon Crutchfield
against George R. Chilton, Master Commissioner Douglas Bell sold a house and lot in Pembroke for $450.
J. W. Cross was the purchaser.

BRIDGE COMPLETED.

New Sidewalk on Seventh Street Bridge.

The Champion Bridge Company
yesterday finished the work of relaying the defective concrete sidewalk on the Seventh street bridge.
The walk laid last winter was ruined
by a sudden freeze. A tree felled by the Home Telephone Company in arranging a guy post near the bridge, seriously bent the outside rail, and this damage will also be repaired as soon as possible.

PICKING CHERRIES.

Two Boys Were Killed By Lightning.

Louisville, Ky., July 6.—Charles
Smith and Leon Bailey, two boys picking cherries in the suburbs late
this afternoon, were instantly killed
by lightning during a violent storm.

LOADED BUGGY WHIP

Used To Kill Rival For Young Woman's Hand.

Catlettsburg, Ky. July 6.—Walking home from Grassy Church, about six miles south of that city, last night,
William Noble, aged 21, was assaulted by John Nichols, who dealt him a blow on the head with the loaded butt
of a buggy whip, inflicting an injury
which resulted in the death of Noble
to-day.

An examination showed that a blood vessel had been broken in the brain. Nichols had threatened to kill any man who dared to pay attention to a certain young lady. When he saw Noble with her he made good his threat. Nichols came to this city, but when it was learned that his victim had died he made his escape and has not been arrested.

SIX O'CLOCK DINNER

Given to Asylum Officers
By Retiring Treasurer.

Mr. Lucian H. Davis gave a dinner Monday evening to the officials of the Western Asylum, in severing
his official relations with the institution. He has been treasurer for the last seven years, a position that has been abolished under the new order
that requires the cashier of the bank receiving the asylum deposits to act
as treasurer.

Mr. Davis' handsome new home is noted for its hospitality and the occasion was a most delightful one.
The guests remained until a late hour and will long remember the evening as one of much pleasure.

THREE DROWN

In An Attempt To Ford The Barren River.

Scottsville, Ky., July 6.—"Hick" Walbert, wife and 3-year-old child,
of Monroe county, were drowned at
the passing ford of Barren River,
just across in Monroe county, last Saturday morning. Mr. Walbert was teaching a singing school at E-non, Tenn., and was on his way to that place. The river was past ford-ing, but he undertook to cross rather than wait for the ferryman.

Sherman's Sickness.

The condition of Representative
James S. Sherman, Republican nominee for Vice President, is causing alarm to the party leaders. It seems improbable that he will be able to take part in the campaign.

Miss Maybell Oldham, of Elkton,
is visiting her cousin, Miss Ruth Oldham.

DECLARED A FAKE.

Betsy Ross Story Said To Be Without Foundation.

The Philadelphia Historical Society has shattered the story of Betsy
Ross, as the first flag maker.
Wm. Campbell, for the society,
says:

"The story is a fake and there is positively no evidence in its favor."

"There never was the slightest excuse for the Betsy Ross fake."

"The stories which you find in the school books about this imaginary heroine are all pure rot, and it is to the everlasting disgrace of America for so many years. I have given the traditions most careful study and find that the story is a lie from beginning to end. The only foundation whatever for the yarn is that there was a young woman named Betsy Ross who took in plain sewing
for a livelihood and who lived in a house, now known as the first American flag house, at 259 Arch street."

"As a matter of fact, Betsy Ross was no more or less than an ordinary seamstress, who would have been fired with about the same amount of patriotic zeal in sewing old glory as she would socks. She never had any interview with George Washington,
and the picture painted showing Washington and the handsome young heroine is one gross libel on the truth."

HERE AND THERE.

Will Fairleigh, a negro boy about 14 years old, was caught by the police in the cellar under P. J. Breslin's fruit store, Tuesday morning at five o'clock. He had crawled in by removing a grating. He was put in the lockup and wept copiously while awaiting to be turned over to the Juvenile Court. He was sent to the House of Reform to remain until he becomes of age.

DRUMMER'S HAZARDS

Some of the Chances Against Which He Is Insured.

There is an insurance company
which does business with commercial travelers. In its literature appears a list of risks on which the company pays.

A commercial traveler as a usual thing is a very lucky individual, but they do meet with accidents and they cannot stop them," says the announcement.

Then are appended the following:

MRS. FRANK STROEBE

I was a nervous wreck.
I felt no desire to live.

REMARKABLE RECOVERY.
THANKS TO PE-RU-NA.

Mrs. Frank Stroebel, R. F. D. 1, Appleton, Wis., writes:

"I began using Peruna a few months ago when my health and strength were all gone, and I was nothing but a nervous wreck, could not sleep, eat or rest properly, and felt no desire to live. 'Three bottles of Peruna made me look at life in a different light, as I began to regain my lost strength. While my recovery took nearly four months, at the end of that time I was better than I ever had been before. I had a splendid color and never weighed more in my life.

"I certainly think Peruna is without rival as a tonic and strength builder, and it has my endorsement."

"This lady entirely recovered from a nervous breakdown. She did not go away to a sanitarium, and spend hundreds of dollars for a cure, she just sat at home, took Peruna, and in four months weighed more than ever in her life, had a splendid color, life looked bright to her. Peruna did all this for her. What more could be expected of any remedy?"

Colored Lothario Stops Whizzing Bullet With His Foot.

FOUR SHOTS ARE FIRED.

Returned and Succeeded In Securing His Dusky Bride.

Charles McKnight, a colored Lothario, was shot by a negro man named Steadman Sunday, while trying to get his daughter, Bertha Steadman, aged 22, to go with him to be married. McKnight secured license Saturday, but when he went for his dusky bride, the old man, who opposed the match, opened fire with a pistol. Four shots were fired and one of them hit McKnight in the foot. He came to town and Dr. E. C. Anderson dressed the wound.

Monday McKnight again went to the girl's home, near Hargis' bridge, and finding the old man away, got the girl and going to a magistrate they were soon married. McKnight works on a farm near Beverly. It is not likely that he will prosecute his new father-in-law.

OUT ON LONG VOYAGE.

Commander is Confident That He Will Be Able to Find the Pole.

New York July 6.—Commander Peary's arctic ship, Roosevelt, left her New York pier today to go to Oyster Bay, before the final departure for the North.

Before the ship left, today, Commander Peary said: "I am confident enough to say that I am going to do or die, but I am certainly going to put into this trip every bit of energy that I have in order to succeed in my undertaking. I know my path will be hedged in by many trials and undoubtedly many disappointments, but I feel confident that if I do not reach the pole, at least I will carry the American flag further North than it has been carried by any previous explorer. Unless unforeseen circumstances intervene, I hope to plant the stars and stripes at the pole."

PLEADS 'NOT GUILTY'

To Charge of Forgery Against Her.

New York, July 6.—Mae C. Woods, whose suit for divorce against Thos. C. Platt was dismissed recently, pleaded not guilty today to a charge of perjury, growing out of her testimony in the recent trial that she was married to Senator Platt. Miss Wood's counsel filed a demurrer to a charge of forgery.

The forgery charge was based on a letter which Miss Wood said she received from Senator Platt acknowledging her as his wife. Argument in the demurrer was set for Wednesday.

FIGHTERS FINED.

Fines Assessed to the Value of $32.50.

The case of W. T. Broderick and Owen Isaacs, insurance men, who figured in a fight last Friday, was begun before Judge Brashear Tuesday afternoon and was concluded yesterday. According to the evidence of several witnesses, Broderick attacked Isaacs with a rock in his hand and cut several places on his scalp with the stone, inflicting serious wounds. He was fined $40 and costs. Isaacs was not fined.

Sam Henderson and Dick Jones, the two saloon men who had a bloody fight last week, were also tried and fined $17.50 and costs each. All of the fines were paid, amounting to $32.50.

BALD-HEADED CLUB

Holds a Meeting For Re-organization Last Saturday Night

LOOKED LIKE OLD TIMES

Col. Green Champlin Elected President On a Harmony Platform.

THERE was an old-time gathering of bald-headed men in the re-organization meeting Saturday night.

The meeting was held in the fourth story hall of the Y. M. C. A. building, in the quiet hour following midnight. As the elevator stopped running at midnight only those who arrived very early caught the last ascension. The others cheerfully climbed the three flights of steps and uttered no word of complaint.

Col. McKee, Col. Buck Leavell and Col. Bill Tibbs exuded a few drops of perspiration, but arrived at the top without turning a hair. Col. Bob Woodriddle and Col. George Randle, now a councilman, came in wreathed in smiles that spread over their faces and disappeared in the hairless plains on tops of their heads.

Col. Joe Twayman was there looking even younger than he did five years ago. Col. Albert Kelly came in whistling "The Star Spangled Banner." Col. Bill Cooper, Col. John Galbreath, Col. Walter Kelly, Col. Mike Kelly, Col. Press Richardson, Col. Chess Pyle, all were there ready for the time of their lives.

Col. B. B. Rice, Col. Tom Jones, Col. George Gary, Col. Jim West and others too numerous to mention answered to their names.

Col. Bob Woodriddle called the meeting to order and said that in re-organizing the Bald Headed Club, after an interval of three years, he begged that nothing be allowed to disturb the harmony. Twenty years ago, he said, when Col. Lem McKee was President, the Club was an honor to Kentucky and its fame extended far and wide. Then came the time when ambition and thirst for power divided the brotherhood into fierce factions and finally it became necessary to take a long recess in order that the angry passions of the partisans of rival candidates might subside.

With all we are back to-night with but one common purpose—to revive the good old times with a genuine love feast. In this spirit of harmony, I want to place in nomination for President a man upon whom all can unite, a man bald in fact and bald at heart. I ask that Col. Green Champlin be elected President and I hope to see him receive every vote.

He is outside in the ante-room, waiting for this honor to be thrust upon him, for "his modesty alone is equal to his merit."

The shouts of approval raised a tumult and a wave of enthusiasm swept over the assemblage that made it impossible to take a formal vote.

Col. Woodriddle named Cols. Ed Galther and Ben Armstrong to find the new President and escort him to the chair, and in an incredibly short while they returned bearing Col. Champlin upon their shoulders.

As he leaped gracefully to the floor, the silver hammer presented to him by the Knockers' Club fell from his pocket. He picked up the souvenir and rapped for order upon the marble desk before him.

"Colonels," he began, "for once my eloquence fails me. I accept the office, but I am too much overcome with emotion to make a speech. I have been Noble Grand of the Odd Fellows, I have been Chancellor Commander of the Pythians, I am now Exalted Ruler of the Elks, but more than all these honors, do I prize the laurel wreath of fame with which you have encircled my brow to-night. I appreciate the honor so highly that I shall never miss a meeting and it would be a useless formality to elect a Vice President. Therefore, for the present, I will not ask for the election of a Vice President. What is the pleasure of the meeting?"

The business session was brief, a membership were received and referred to the proper committees.

A resolution was adopted calling upon the Denver Convention to put a plank in the platform denouncing the use of hair as a covering for the head. The resolution was passed, all voting for it except Cols. Ed Peyton and Bill Salter, who have recently become bipartisans and are opposed to taking sides in politics.

President Champlin said Col. Wm. J. Bryan had become bald since 1896 and all bald-headed men could conscientiously support him this time. The country needs a President who has something on the inside of his head besides teeth. With Bryan for President and some good bald-headed man like Gille James for Vice President, there would be no hair-pulling in the coming contest.

Taft not only has hair on his head, but sports a curled moustache and his running mate, Sherman, has so much hair—and red hair at that—that some of it is growing in patches on his face. (The reference to red hair caused Col. Bill Cooper to squirm and frown, but he swallowed his choler with such determination that he also carried down his quid of tobacco.)

In the midst of the excitement, refreshments were passed around, consisting of Filtered water and Early Harvest apples. The apples were of a very fine quality—and the only unpleasant feature of the dinner was that some happy families of unsuspecting worms were eaten out of house and home and some of them had very narrow escapes. In fact a few casualties occurred in cases where some of the Colonels failed to leave a core. The water had ice in it and was wonderfully free from ammalcules and sparkled brightly under the electric chandelier as it was poured out of the silver pitcher. It looked so good that even the doctors drank some. Col. Ed Peyton presided at the pitcher and Col. Buck Leavell served the fruit. The rest of the evening was spent in a happy social reunion. An excellent program is promised for the next meeting, which will be held at some place not yet decided upon, as the Club had permission to use the Y. M. C. A. hall only one time.

OLD OFFENDER

Gives Up After Eluding Arrest Until Wounded.

John Benton, col., who has been doing arrest for two months charged with cutting and wounding his wife, came into town Tuesday and surrendered to the police, with a bullet wound in his arm, which he said he received at Crofton. He claims a brakeman shot him while getting on a train. The wound is merely a flesh wound and is not serious. Benton is an old offender.

LARGE CONCOURSE

Followed Remains of the Hon. Ed Croan to His Grave.

Shepherdsville, Ky., July 6.—Former Representative Ed Croan was buried here today. His funeral was the largest in the history of Bullitt county. Tributes of respect were paid him by former State Senator Charles Carroll and S. M. Simmons, of Louisville, and J. R. Zimmerman, of Bullitt county.

Mr. Croan was one of Bullitt county's most useful men. He was author of the Croan dog law.

Dustless Method.

The Nashville Compressed Air Vacuum Cleaning Co.'s dustless method of cleaning out dust, dirt and grease from carpets, curtains, etc., is arousing much interest among housekeepers. The big machine is kept busy and every customer who tries it is more than satisfied. As a sanitary and labor-saving method it is a marvel. Every particle of dirt is removed without taking up the carpet. H. G. Dyke, Gen. Mgr., of Thos. Norlie, foreman, can be reached at Gee's Stable, where orders may be left in their absence. Prices very reasonable.

TWO MINUTE SKETCHES

Andrew Jackson.

By J. A. EDGERTON.

His noble life
 was a history of overcoming obstacles.

ANDREW JACKSON was an example of the triumph of will power over difficulties. His whole life was a history of overcoming obstacles. Many of these obstacles, perhaps the most serious ones, were in his own nature. One of them was a hot anger that constantly reared up enemies in his path. Another was a wild and reckless disposition
 in youth. A third was physical disease.
 One of his military campaigns was made at a time when he could hardly sit in the saddle because of pain. All the latter part of his life he suffered from ill health and wounds.

Of the outward obstacles in the way
 of this indomitable man, poverty was nearly the chief. The loss of both parents in youth added to this handicap. The second was a rough pioneer environment where his life was constantly in peril. The third was the neglect and opposition of other people.
 At one time during the Creek campaign
 he was left alone. The term of enlistment of his men having expired, nearly all of them went home. At another time the force under his command was disbanded by the government. He was always antagonized by the chief men in congress and by all the moneyed interests.

Despite these fearful adverse odds
 he won. There are few examples of success in all our history more conspicuous. He won against his personal enemies at home. He won in all his battles. He won over congress. He won against the national bank. He won in his fight with nullification.

His mottoes are illuminative of the man. He often said, "Nothing is done till I am done." Another phrase constantly on his lips was, "A clean victory or a clean defeat." When others objected to his plans, he silenced them
 by peremptorily exclaiming, "I will take the responsibility." At one time in 1814, when a traitor to which he tried to cross a swollen stream was nearly swept over by a cataraet, after his escape
 he said he was trying to show his companions how close he could get to the river. He said he would get them out yet, and he did. When the massacre at Fort Mims occurred, he was in bed with serious wounds, yet he took the field immediately, though he had to be attended by his physician, who feared
 he would die on his way to camp.

BIDDED HIS TIME.

Patience and Persistence of the East
 Indian Trader.
 The patience of certain Indian traders is almost beyond belief. However, as a virtue is seldom a simple and single headed affair, but usually consists of a mixture of several motives, it is as safe
 to conclude that greed mingled with a good share of obstinacy goes to make up the measure of these peddlers' patience. It is thus because only a passive form of the persistence which belongs to the skillful trader everywhere. A.
 D. McCormick in "An Artist in the Himalayas" gives an account of a transaction in which he had a part.
 He was camping in the mountain region, and merchants were continually coming to his tent in the hope of disposing of their wares. They did not seem to mind if their goods were not bought.

"Only just look at this beautiful work, sahib," said one.
 "It is too busy," replied Mr. McCormick.

"Oh, I don't mind. I'll wait."

At the end of the day there was the trader.

"I want to show sahib this beautiful ring."

"I don't want any ring," insisted
 "sahib." "Go!"

"But, sahib, I sell this ring very cheap."

"I tell you I don't want it!"

"I wait, sahib (richness). If sahib only see the ring he will buy."

The next morning he was seated
 about 100 yards from the tent, gazing into space. Two hours later he was in the same position. At nightfall he was still there. Mr. McCormick could stand it no longer. "Show me the ring!" he called. "What do you want
 for it?"

"Oh, sahib, it is a beautiful ring! I made it myself!"

"Here, you old scoundrel, this isn't a stone—it's a piece of glass!"

"Oh, sahib, e-stones is good e-stone.
 Gili-as, no?"

"Well, what do you want for it, you swindler?"

"Fifty rupees."

"Make tracks quick! I wouldn't give more than ten!"

The next day the merchant reappear-ed, offering the ring for 45 rupees; the day after he came for 40 rupees; the third day he came for 35 rupees; the

DIRECTNESS AND ACCURACY.

DOCTOR PIERCE'S AIM ALWAYS HAS BEEN to give positive and VALUABLE SERVICE for every dollar received; therefore when he began professional life he sought to

AIM STRAIGHT AND HIT THE MARK.

especially in the treatment of a very large class of cases that were being mal-treated by many physicians through ligurance of their real nature.

This necessitated going to the root of the trouble in two special senses, — if CAREFUL, EXHAUSTIVE STUDY to know what was the real cause of the innumerable aches, pains, drains and weaknesses
 which afflicted women, and AGAIN to use roots which Nature had provided so plentifully for the healing of mankind.

Thoroughly convinced that alcoholic stimulants and medicines prepared with alcohol did far more harm than good, Dr.
 Pierce prepared his remedies, extracted their virtues and preserved them without alcohol, then, guided by actual experience, formed combinations by which a minimum of medicine produced the maximum result. This insured his success and gave him the reputation of "the successful specialist," and, quite naturally, the prescription that he thus used most by came his FAVORITE, and was the origin of

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
 as now known. In no sense is it a "patent medicine," or even a secret one, but a REAL PRESCRIPTION OF A REAL DOCTOR.

that had run into great popularity because it cured more than ninety-eight out of every hundred of the cases in which it was correctly used.

Some of the important ingredients of this
 now world-famous "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION"
 is

BLUE COHOSH ROOT,
 which was in great repute among the American Indians a century ago. The squares used it for the relief of their special troubles, particularly for the cure of the pains of maternity, calling it
 "Pappoose root." Then there are four other ingredients in this "PRESCRIPTION," namely: Lady's Slipper root, Black Co-
 hosh root, Golden Seal root and Unleaved root.

It Stands Alone not only in respect to its composition, but also as the only specific, advertised remedy for women's diseases which absolutely CONTAINS NO ALCOHOL.

It Stands Alone as the one made by the makers of which take their patients
 fully into their confidence and tell them exactly what they are taking. This Pierce can afford to do, because his
 "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" is made of such ingredients and after working formula that has thousands of cures
 to its credit, placing its merits above criticism.

1000-page Doctor Book sent free
 on receipt of 10 one-cent
 stamps to cover postage only.
 It is a complete guide to the cure of every one of the commonest of all diseases.
 Every family should have it in case of sudden illness or accident. It is illustrated with hundreds of woodcuts and several colored plates. Address Dr. B. W.

THE CHICAGO WATERWORKS.
The Report of the Civil Service Commission of Chicago to the Commissioner of Public Works April 17, 1908.

Investigation of certain charges preferred by your department against employees in the water bureau and a subsequent inquiry into conditions in that service show that neglect of duty, lack of discipline, insubordination, and corruption have demoralized that service as far back as there is a record of the office. From evidence before it the commission is convinced that the fundamental cause lies in lack of organization and discipline and in the absence of common business methods. The commission is of the opinion that these evils cannot be corrected wholly by spasmodic investigation or by occasional discharge of employees. Evidence placed before the commission by Deputy Commissioner Redeker of the department of public works and Superintendent McEort of the water bureau, whose efforts brought about the present state of affairs, showed the rights of public property on the part of those charged with its custody and use.

It proved complete absence of a sense of responsibility on the part of employees. Officials of the bureau testified that no

LITTLE DIFFERENCE IN CREED

Strides Made Toward Uniting Baptists and Disciples of Christ.

CONFERENCE IN CHICAGO

The Rev. I. J. Spencer to Address National Congress in November.

Lexington, Ky., July 6.—The Rev. I. J. Spencer, pastor of the Central Christian church (or Disciples of Christ, the term used by members of this denomination), will accept an invitation to address the National Baptist Congress, to be held in Chicago November 10 to 12, upon the subject, "What definite Steps Should be Immediately Taken Toward the Union of Baptists, Free Baptists and Disciples of Christ." Other speakers representing the first two denominations also will discuss the topic, and it is expected that the discussion will result in a long stride toward the union of the two denominations—Baptists and Disciples of Christ, the first step of which was taken two years ago. At the National Congress of Disciples, in Indianapolis, in March, 1906, by invitation Dr. E. Y. Mullins, president of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, of Louisville, and Mr. Spencer discussed the topic: "What Does the New Testament Teach Concerning the Doctrine of the Remission of Sins." One session of the congress was given entirely to the addresses.

The similarity of the teachings of the denominations on vital points aroused great enthusiasm. This gave rise to the suggestion that through committees the two denominations might learn as exactly as possible are their denominational differences. Acting upon the suggestion, the congress appointed a committee of ten, with Mr. Spencer chairman, and invited the appointment of a committee of equal number from the Baptists, with Dr. Mullins chairman. Since that time the heads of committees have held frequent conferences and consultations.

The original drafts of the statements have been completed and are before the members of the committee for suggestions. When finally revised these statements will be given wide publicity through the religious press, and in the course of time will come before the congress of the denominations. Neither of the denominations has a governing ecclesiastical body, each congregation being a separate authoritative unit. Consequently these committees cannot act authoritatively for their respective denominations, and their reports will contain no recommendations. Each will set forth the doctrinal teachings of that denomination. The rough drafts show that they are surprisingly alike. When this is known through publication the belief is held that in a spirit of fraternity and desire for unity the denominations will waive minor differences and merge congregations, acting as individuals, yet probably in concert, pursuant to a recommendation from their congresses. In Western Canada Disciples and Baptists have already united, are using churches in common and share things alike.

Accidents will happen, but the best regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for such emergencies. It soothes the pain and heals the hurt.

RUPTURED VEIN

Kills Jacob Dilgard, a Cattletsborg Saloonkeeper.

Cattletsborg, Ky., July 6.—Jacob Dilgard, a saloonkeeper of this city, was found dead at the Alger House last night. Death was found to be due to a spontaneous rupture of a varicose vein in the right leg below the knee. He was married and leaves a wife and three small children.

NOBLE WORDS BOLDLY SPOKEN

Society of Equity Goes Squarely on Record As Did the Planters Protective Association Last August.

BOTH FARMER'S ORGANIZATIONS STAND FOR LAW AND ORDER.

Preceding the able speech of Senator Campbell Cantrill Monday, the Society of Equity adopted the following resolutions at the business session in the morning.

Mr. Cantrill's speech, a synopsis of which was given in Tuesday's Kentuckian, was along the same line as set out in the fifth resolution.

We endorse and commend the careful reading of all the declarations put forth in these strong declarations of this worthy organization of farmers.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

1. Resolved, that the thanks and gratitude of the county union, A. S. of E., is hereby expressed to the First National Bank of Hopkinsville for their spirit of liberality in furnishing our salesmen funds to make advances on our tobacco and while we realize money has been stringent, we realize they have been liberal and have enabled us to market and hold our crop. This has been done in the face of one of the worst money panics ever known to our people.
2. We hereby express our confidence in our salesman, H. H. Abernathy, and we can say truthfully, he has handled our tobacco satisfactorily, weighing correctly, pricing and selling in the best approved manner, and paying promptly for all tobacco sold. We have full confidence in his ability and judgment as a tobacco man and heartily recommend him to members of the A. S. of E.

3. We feel justly proud of our record this year in selling tobacco at full market price and heartily recommend our organization to grow.

We are grateful for the many expressions of kindness and wishes of success expressed by people not members of our order. We have full confidence in the buyers who have patronized our organization and promise our best endeavors to keep our tobacco business up to the high standard it has attained.

4. We express our thanks to and our confidence in our graders and officers generally who, by their strict attention to business, have shown their faith in the order and have conducted their business in a highly satisfactory manner.

5. We denounce as detrimental to the best interests of our order all lawlessness, and especially night riding, and recommend to our membership strict compliance with the laws of our land and we promise to use our best efforts in upholding our laws and seeing to their enforcement whenever in our power.

6. We respectfully invite and urge all farmers who have not pooled to pool their crops with us and we promise our best efforts to protect their interests.

The Planters Association.

To show that the Society of Equity does not stand alone in its advocacy of law, we herewith give the resolutions adopted August 20, 1907, by the county committee of the Protective Association:

"We, the Christian county committee of the Dark Tobacco Planters Protective Association of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia, in regular meeting assembled, hereby commend Governor Patterson and Governor Beckham for the action they have heretofore taken to suppress the dreaded night rider and to bring to justice each offender of the law and to rid the State of the disgrace that has thus been brought upon her people; and hereby offer to the Governor of Kentucky our support in suppressing lawlessness and crime of every nature, and as a means of stamping out the crimes committed in various sections, we hereby call upon the Governor of Kentucky to co-operate with the various district and county officers in an effort to apprehend and convict the guilty parties."

"The Dark Tobacco Protective Association believes in the maintenance of law and order. It has on all occasions disapproved and condemned the violations of law. Its leaders and officers, and its members are among the best people of our land. The organization, its officers and membership, stand ready to assist and co-operate with the officers of the law in ferreting out the guilty parties and bringing them to a speedy trial."

Organizations whose members stand for such principles as these deserve to succeed—and will succeed if the good people in them will, as they have pledged themselves to do, co-operate with the officers of the law, with law and order leagues and with every possible influence for good citizenship, and not allow unwise leaders to destroy the purposes of the organizations.

We are glad to see the two organizations united in Christian county as advocates of law and order. In spite of publications made from time to time to array the organizations against those who would assist them in carrying out their expressed principles. We are also pleased to see that they are not antagonizing each other, but have joined issues in the one supreme purpose of getting all of the farmers into one organization or the other.

The Kentuckian stands ready to assist, without money and without cost, in bringing about this result. It stands today where it has stood for thirty years—on the side of the farmers. It has its files to prove that it has steadily, consistently and always advocated both the Association and the Society of Equity, or any similar organization to benefit the people.

Now that the victory is won and everybody is for the same principles of law and order and peace and harmony, there can be no further fear of trouble in Christian county, no matter what may happen in other parts of the State.

The best people on earth live in this grand old county of Christian. It is the invader and the interloper who need to be guarded against.

NIGHT TURNED TO DAY IN LONDON

Wonderful Phenomena Are Experienced in Prolonged Light.

DARKNESS IS ABSENT.

Scientists Cannot Agree as to the Cause for the Unusual Conditions.

London, July 6.—London is talking about the wonderful phenomena of the last three nights. It is usually pitch dark in London, even in midsummer, soon after 8 o'clock, but since Wednesday there has been hardly any night at all. It has been almost as bright as day up till 10 and 11. At midnight the sky has been clear enough to read without the aid of artificial light and some correspondents have been writing newspapers telling how they have been able to play tennis up till 10:45, while away over the north of London the sky at midnight and all night through has not lost the beautiful light of green, gold and red until sunrise.

LIKE SCOTTISH NIGHT

In the north of Scotland it never turns really dark in midsummer, but none can recall such a remarkable phenomena so far south as London. Some people in alarm rang on the telephones for the fire stations, reporting a big fire raging in North London.

It is reported in the papers that the midsummer sun has been remarkably pronounced in Lancashire. The results have been of a most picturesque character. At New Brighton, which is known as the bedroom of Liverpool, the scenes were unprecedented, hundreds of more prosperous people having residences overlooking the river, held garden parties until as late as 3 o'clock in the morning, when the sun became too hot and retired to rest before going to town on business.

SPEND NIGHT IN HILLS

At Brighton there are two miles of gorse-covered hills. Crowds of young men and women preferred spending the nights there rather than indoors, the atmosphere was so delightful in the soft light. After midnight the shimmering water was alive with bathers and the air filled with the music of young laughter. But the results were generally most demoralizing to business, as most of the men having spent the night in the open were not much good for work in the hot daytime.

In Scotland there has been no darkness at all since Tuesday, an extraordinary occurrence. Night trains running over the Grampian Hills without lights are reported for the first time on record. Scientists, as usual, differ as to the explanation for the phenomena. For a while some fell in with the common view that the northern lights are the aurora borealis generally associated with the land of the midnight sun. Others disagree. They say similar phenomena may have been ascribed to volcanic eruptions on previous occasions, but at present there is no unusual disturbance of the earth's surface to connect with the display.

SURVEYOR KILLED.

Sixteen-Year-Old Boy Stabs Martin Snyder to Death.

Williamsburg, Ky., July 6.—Martin Snyder, Surveyor of Whitley county, died this morning from the effects of a stab in the abdomen Saturday morning by Granville Steeley a 16-year-old boy. Snyder and others were at Steeley's home drinking when he threw a lamp at Steeley's mother and was cut by the boy. Steeley is in jail.

Killed Himself.
